Regents approve 'Dooley Field' From the Athens Banner Herald

by Lee Shearer

May 14, 2019

When football announcers tell us where the University of Georgia's football team is playing in its Sept. 7 home opener, they'll be saying "Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium."

The state Board of Regents made it official Tuesday.

In a vote with no suspense, the board gave its formal approval to naming the field in honor of former UGA football coach and athletic director Vince Dooley.

"I'm pleased that the board approved it," said UGA President Jere Morehead, who attended the meeting with UGA Vice President for Government Relations Toby Carr.

Under University System of Georgia policy, the naming of "exterior" features such as buildings and playing fields on public college campuses must be approved by the Board of Regents, the governor-appointed body that oversees the state's public colleges and universities. Interior namings, such as classrooms, can be approved at the college level.

For years, various UGA alumni, Bulldog supporters and others have asked why the stadium or field couldn't be named for the university's winningest football coach and longtime athletic director.

Now 86, Dooley was a young man of 31 when he was hired to coach UGA's floundering football team in 1964. Dooley immediately revived the program with SEC championships in 1966 and '68, the first of six he would win in 25 years as the UGA head coach, along with Georgia's only national championship in 1980.

Dooley stepped down as coach after his final team finished 9-3 with a 34-27 win over Michigan State in the 1989 Gator Bowl.

His coaching record was 201-77-10, at that time that was more wins than any other coach in SEC history except Bear Bryant.

Dooley became athletic director and continued in that role until he stepped down in 2004 after years of friction between Dooley and then-UGA President Michael Adams.

As athletic director, Dooley's teams won 23 national championships and 78 SEC championships, according to UGA's May 2 announcement that it would ask the Regents to approve naming the football field for Dooley.

Women's teams won the majority of those championships. After new federal laws mandated that universities offer equal athletic opportunities to women, athletic director Dooley backed a women's NCAA competition program that for years was consistently ranked as one of the top five in the nation.

Dooley also maintained the UGA Athletic Association's standing as one of the most financially sustainable college athletic programs while overseeing expensive but profitable expansions of Sanford Stadium.

The stadium is named for Steadman Sanford, who was president (then called "chancellor") of the university in 1929, when the stadium was first built atop a little river valley at what was then the edge of the university campus.

With an official seating capacity of 92,746, Sanford Stadium is among the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the NCAA, and one of the largest 15 in the world.

Since his retirement from UGA Dooley has made marks in other fields; he's well-known in the gardening community and the most recent of his numerous books is based on the Civil War correspondence of an Athens soldier in the Confederate army and his wife.

UGA plans to dedicate Dooley Field on Sept. 7 at Georgia's first home football game of 2019 against Murray State University.

Featured Lettermen

BRAD REGISTER • 1997-98-99

Brad recently completed a questionnaire for us and shared about his life, memories, and thoughts about UGA and the Georgia Football Lettermen's Club. Thanks Brad!!!

▶ TELL US ABOUT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

I am an Orthopedic Surgeon and partner at Athens Orthopedic Clinic. We have been here for 9 years and I specialize in Sports Medicine and Arthroscopic Surgery of the shoulder, hip, and knee. I am married to Jennifer Register, who is originally from Gaithersburg, Maryland. Jennifer attended Penn State and is an attorney. She also teaches spin and barre classes and is the President-Elect of the Junior League. Jennifer is an excellent mom to our three children, Quinn (7), Chloe (5), and Clay (1).

▶ TELL US ABOUT YOUR COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AND HOBBIES.

I travel to Haiti annually to perform Orthopedic Surgery with Bethlehem Ministry. I am also helping to lead the partnership between AOC and Playsafe, which places athletic trainers in local high schools without a budget for an ATC. Thirdly, I am involved with Downtown Academy, which is an outstanding school providing an opportunity to inner city Athens kids. In my spare time, I enjoy walking the dog, coaching my daughter's softball teams, and hanging out on Lake Oconee.

▶ WHAT ARE SOME OF YOUR FONDEST MEMORIES OR SPECIAL MOMENTS FROM YOUR DAYS AT UGA?

I'll always cherish the camaraderie developed during my 4 years at UGA. It's difficult to experience that later in life. The games that stand out to me the most are the 1997 win over Florida and the comeback win over Drew Brees and Purdue in the 2000 Outback Bowl.

▶ DO YOU HAVE ANY GOALS THAT YOU WISH THE LETTERMEN'S CLUB WOULD ACCOMPLISH IN THE FUTURE?

I don't know if this is possible, but I would love the Lettermen's Club to open up some parking spaces down the hill in the Oconee cemetery to allow younger lettermen a chance to park there. Also, the Lettermen's Club in the stadium should be revamped in my opinion. I don't want to offend anyone here, but I have some Georgia Tech friends who describe the Lettermen's Club at Tech, and it sounds like most of the past Tech lettermen congregate in their club during home games for food, drinks, and fellowship. We should have a similar experience. I realize that our letterman's club was taken over by the recruiting staff a few years ago, but now that the West End Zone is up and running, it's a perfect time to revamp the Letterman's Club Room at Sanford Stadium and make it the envy of our peers at other schools.

▶ PLEASE FEEL FREE TO SHARE ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

I'm thankful to be a part of this very special group. It takes a special (and somewhat crazy) type of person to play football at this level. I'll always cherish the relationships I've developed and continue to maintain with thanks in large part to the Lettermen's Club for allowing us to stay in touch. Go Dawgs!

Hole-In-Ones

South Carolina Hall of Fame

Congratulations to Coach Steve Greer on his induction into the South Carolina Hall of Fame. The event took place on April 23, 2019 in Greenville, SC. The below article is from the South Carolina Hall of Fame.

Born in Greer, SC, Steve attended Greer High School and was a 2x winner (1963, 1964) of the South Carolina Class AA Lineman of the Year. He was named to the Shrine Bowl (1964) & North-South All-Star (1965) football games, where he was named Most Valuable Lineman in both games. In 1964, he was named a Parade High School All-American. From there Steve accepted a scholarship to the University of Georgia, where he was a three-year starter. Steve played in three bowl games, including the 1968 Sugar Bowl as SEC Champions. In 1969, he was named first team All-SEC, an All-American, won the Atlanta Touchdown Club award for Most Valuable Lineman in the SEC, and was named permanent team captain of the Georgia Bulldogs. Greer played in two post-season college all-star games (Lions American Bowl/Hula Bowl) before playing in the CFL with the Toronto Argonauts. After his CFL career Greer came back to Georgia as a grad assistant (1971) and then became an assistant coach at Auburn University (1972-1978) before returning as an assistant coach for UGA. In total, Steve Greer, dedicated more than 35 years with the Bulldogs as a Player, Assistant Coach (1979-1993), and Director of Football Operations (1994-2009). Steve was among the 1980 Georgia National Championship football team as Defensive Ends Coach & Recruiting Coordinator. He is known as the primary recruiter for legendary Bulldog running back Herschel Walker. He retired from UGA in 2009 and in 2014 he was inducted into the UGA Circle of Honor. Steve now resides in Athens, GA with his wife Susan of 50 years.

This is Athens' only cemetery designated to honor and celebrate the lives of UGA football lettermen. We invite you to consider supporting Bulldog Haven by deciding now to invest in a plot for yourself and your loved ones.

Bulldog Haven is a non-profit venture that will support the maintenance and restoration of historic Oconee Hill Cemetery. In addition to the noteworthy University of Georgia personalities interred there, Oconee Hill Cemetery is also the resting place of many important figures in Georgia's history.

Private tours of Bulldog Haven are available by calling General Manager Don Smith at (706) 543-6262.
